Grand Knight's Notes

Joe's Jots

Sorry for the late newsletter. I waited for the blood drive to be past history. Well, it was successful. Mike Maliniak did another outstanding job. We could naturally have a lot more donors but, for the first time, 22 was a good number. This is the first. I know that the next one will be even better. Some notables is the fact that two were first time donors; Andrew Malsack and Dan Rucker. Next time, I know you will give.

October is here and there are some fun things to get involved in. Of course the meeting is Wednesday the 5th at 7:30pm with the Rosary at 7:00pm.

October 15 & 16 is St. Luke Festival weekend. Our council will be involved in it fully, with all members asked to help out. We will be the major team to run the Sunday Family Fun Day. We need help with many items. The first is ideas for food, games for children and adults, and entertainment. We also need setup people and a clean up crew. Contact me. If you could and would run an event, let me know.

For our second meeting night, Wed Oct 19th, there will be again, an open house. We have arranged with the Virginia Beach Fire Department's Fire Marshall Office for a talk on Fire Prevention. It is very interesting and informative. As usual this will be open to all. Tell your neighbors and friends.

Next month will be different. The second meeting night will not be an open house. We will meet as a council and plan the first six months of next year. Plan to attend and bring ideas. Member's thoughts will be the focus of the meeting and the officers will be there only to listen.

Also, October is membership blitz month. Our focus will be aimed at that project.

Everyone should ask at least one Catholic man. We will be present after every mass, even the 7am mass on Sunday.

Oh yes, if you haven't heard, there will be a 7 AM mass every day including Saturday and Sunday.

We are continuing to sell Keep Christ In Christmas cards after all masses. Stop by and give them a look. REMEMBER THE GREATEST GIFT EVER GIVEN WAS GODS GIFT TO MAN OF HIS SON.

Note: If anyone wishes to publish an article in the newsletter, and/or has a suggestion, include a write-up formatted like you want to see it in the newsletter. Include a title and your name and email it to Lance Spencer
